

What the Broadcasting group is doing sets a dangerous precedent for large corporations' control over the media and the images our population is subjected to. It needs to be stopped.